

SAMARITAN
COUNSELING CENTER

January 22, 2012

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Samaritan Counseling Center in Albuquerque was awarded accreditation by the Samaritan Institute, an organization that develops and benchmarks behavioral health quality standards. This four-year cyclical on-site review evaluates clinical care and patient outcomes, along with financial and administrative accountability and the allocation of resources to meet community needs. Samaritan Counseling Center in Albuquerque has served Central New Mexico for twenty-five years with outpatient mental health counseling and community outreach programs.

- 30 -

For additional information contact:

Thomas K. Sims, PhD
President and CEO
Samaritan Counseling Center of Albuquerque
505-842-5300

Samaritan Counseling Center of Albuquerque integrates medical and spiritual resources to help people in Central New Mexico find wholeness and healing. We provide professional psychological counseling, education and outreach programs in English and Spanish to individuals, families and children; including community members with low-to-moderate income.